Business (meeting started 12:40 pm)

1. Introduction and Roll Call
2. Agenda unanimously accepted
3. Approval of minutes 2 November 2012 meeting (unanimously accepted)
4. Chair’s Report to NMISC. Delivered by Suleman Surti.
   a. Reviewed organizational structure of NPSS (RISC and NMISC)
   b. Request made for contribution of a technical article from each TC for the quarterly NPSS Newsletter. This would be about 1 per year.
   c. Report on conference abstract quality submission. To be discussed as separate agenda item 14.
   d. Valentin T. Jordanov Radiation Instrumentation Travel Grant now open to both NSS and MIC. Will reimburse for travel to and participation in NSS/MIC up to 600 USD if conference is on continent that awardee resides in and 1200 USD if conference is in a different continent.
   e. Splitting TNS into two journals:
      i. Decision has been made to proceed with a new NPSS sponsored TNS-B journal dedicated to medical imaging.
      ii. NPSS has officially not agreed to any proposed changes to the Memorandum of Understanding with TMI.
      iii. Discussions are ongoing but general feeling is that we must first get TNS-B approved through the IEEE TAB before NPSS agrees to any proposed changes to the MOU with TMI.
   f. Joint Oversight committee (JOS) operation changes. To be discussed under other business.
   g. Request made to nominate candidates for IEEE Fellow Status.
5. Election of new Vice-Chair
   a. There were two candidates as needed by the Bylaws; Paul Marsden and Georges El Fakhri.
   b. Paul Marsden was elected as the new NMISC Vice-Chair following the vote from all eligible voting members present (see above) and considering the votes of those absent that were sent to Andrew prior to the meeting.
6. Status of 2013 NMISC Election and Sub-Committee Chairs
   a. There were eight candidates for 5 seats on NMISC. The new members with terms from 1 January 2014 – 31 December 2016 are David Brasse, Anna Celler, Katia Parodi, Dennis Schaart and Stefaan Vandenberghe.
   b. Andrew Goertzen took over as the Secretary and Chair of the Nominations Sub-Committee in summer 2013 and will continue in this position for 2014.
   c. Outgoing NMISC members on 31 December 2013 are Freek Beekman, Adam Alessio, Jennifer Huber, Jinhun Joung and Andrew Reader
   d. At the end of 2013 the terms will expire for Irene Buvat, Chair of the Awards/Fellows Sub-committee and Ray Muzic, Chair of the Communications (Web) Sub-committee
a. 2177 registered participants
b. Reviewed number of registrants and abstracts.
c. Overall satisfaction of participants based on survey is still very high (93% good rating or better).

a. 1,679 abstracts accepted from 1,846 submissions, MIC received 691 abstracts from 40 countries. Acceptance: 129 oral, 505 poster, 57 rejected (8.25% rejection rate).
b. 37% of MIC abstracts from Asia, 33% North America, 29% Europe, 1% South America. Over 100 abstracts from South Korea.
c. Reviewed number of abstracts, topics and program layout. Significant increase in abstracts submitted to ‘Other Modalities’ section.

a. Tony Lavietes, General Chair of the 2014 NSS/MIC, discussed goal of making the meeting paperless.
   i. Tablets to be used in short courses.
   ii. Mobile app to be ported to all mobile OS platforms. Goal of being ready for demo in 6 weeks.
   iii. Consider asking authors to have slides available for download prior to the conference.
b. Georges requested feedback on workshops from current meeting to aid in planning next meeting.
   i. Discussion about whether material presented at the meeting should also form the basis of a workshop. Alberto mentioned that he favours invited talks at the MIC for industry or users.

a. Meeting Chairs have been named.
b. Welcome suggestions on Plenary Speakers and other recommendations on meeting format.

11. Report of Joint Oversight Sub-Committee (JOC). Delivered by Ralf Engels
b. Strasbourg was selected for the 2016 meeting.
   i. The Congress Centre is under construction and to be ready by Jan. 2016.
   ii. Contract is on the way and nearly finalized between CEA and Strasbourg Congress Centre iii. No committee formed yet.

a. 4 candidates for Bruce Hasegawa award. Winner was Martin Judenhofer, UC Davis.
b. 6 candidates for Ed Hoffman award. Winner was Jeff Fessler, University of Michigan.
c. Nominees were appropriate. Judges thanked for their involvement.

13. Report by Chair of Communications (web) sub-committee.
a. No report was submitted.
   a. Described goal of sub-committee to help improve overall quality of the abstracts presented at the meeting by producing a set of guidelines and selection criteria that help the authors and reviewers in the preparation and review of submitted abstracts/summaries.
   b. Presented a summary of a discussion held on Basecamp, with key identified areas to address being:
      i. Selection/ranking procedure
      ii. Reviewer expertise and justification of score iii. Encouraging more innovative/speculative contributions iv. Clarifying the role of the abstract and the summary.
      v. Clarifying the role of topic advisors in setting the conference program.
   c. The sub-committee will finalize the recommendations and guidelines shortly. These will be circulated to NMISC members and a vote held on their adoption.
   a. Provided overview of Adcom structure, composition and purpose.
   b. NPSS financial reserves are reasonably large for an IEEE society with ~3000 members. Ron suggests that this may be a good time to advocate that NPSS fund some MIC related initiatives.
   c. Ron urged the importance of developing a plan to pursue a TNS B journal since EMBS is aggressively steering the discussion regarding TMI.
16. Other Business
   a. Changes to Bylaw 3.5.
      i. Discussion of documents held.
      ii. Vote to adopt change to Bylaw 3.5. 14 yes, 0 no, 4 absent/abstention.
      iii. Change to Bylaw 3.5 passed with greater than 2/3rd majority.
